About This Game

Experience the thrilling life of a Lumberjack in virtual reality with Lumberjack VR, an arcade action game for the HTC Vive. Fight your way through waves of logs, lumber and bombs with nothing but an axe in your hand.

Play in 3 levels, each with its own unique mechanics. Score as high as possible to continue to the next wave and to reach the top of the leaderboard. Each level consists of 5-10 waves. You must reach the target score to continue to the next wave before the timer hits zero. If you fail, you will be sent back to wave 1. You score points by chopping wood as straight and even as possible.

You can also score points by hitting the massive target boards with bombs, performing ticks and more. If you struggle to compete on the leaderboards, you can hone your skills in the training levels to become a master Lumberjack.

Features

- Immersive wood chopping

I chuck wood. Video of gameplay: <https://youtu.be/V3JDKHSpfzAA>

This game is a bit different than ordinary wave shooters which is why I purchased it. You need to accrue a certain amount of points in order to move onto the next wave. The amount of points you get for cutting each log depends on how perfectly you cut them in half. With chickens to catch and BBQ, bombs, & bird eggs thrown into the mix this adds variety to the gameplay. There are 3 levels, each with a different difficulty. I had a lot of fun playing this game and the unlockable axes (I believe there's 6 of them) add replayability to the game. Definitely recommend for the inexpensive price!. I played this on the Oculus Rift with Touch Controllers and didn't find any issues. I had some fun with this game. However, a couple of things kept this from being a truly enjoyable experience. First of all, the UI could be a lot better. The tutorial also needs a lot of work. I was confused on how to cut wood the way it wanted me to to get maximum points (don't cut against the grain). Not sure how anyone can realistically get the points demanded on the tutorial. No tips or anything along the way, just trial and error. You're probably better off not doing the tutorial unless you want frustration.

I only played 30 minutes because my arm was hurting me. Yeah, you will get tired quickly. Given the low price, I do recommend this game. It's quite the challenge, not just with quick reaction time required but with the physical exertion involved.

Rate 5/10, would rate possibly higher with added content, improved gameplay. For the price this game is amazing, works hand eye and timing all together, can be very challenging.. +Cheap

-Badly implemented
-Some levels nearly impossible
-Repetitive
-Axe throwing a little wonkey

2/5

Could be good, but has bad controls, worse physics and in the long-run is executed poorly enough that it's just not entertaining.

Had an interesting premise but bland, repetitive music, unclear instructions on exactly what you're supposed to be doing, and unbeatable "training" levels ruined it for me.. +Interesting concept

This game does work with the Rift and i did not see any issues with the game. However the gameplay is pretty repetative and not very clear. But for about $4 its a good time killer..
